He... he bought me. Well, he's about to learn I won't be owned by any man.

He bought me. He thinks he owns me. And I worry he might be right. He's not the hero—he's my villain.

I shouldn't want him. But I do.

I should hate him. But I don't.

But my monster seems plagued by nightmares. I thought demons didn't dream. Yet something in his past destroys him in his mind while he's sleeping next to me.

Awake, he's terrifying, cold, calculating. He'll use me like the others before him have. I know men like him.

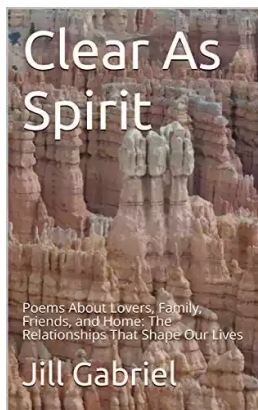

And yet, when he's kissing me, I worry I don't know a thing about him.

He's hiding something from me.

A secret that'll turn my world upside down and prove that even monsters can be more than meets the eye...
