The pattern uses a lightweight and breathable yarn, making it ideal for the warmer spring days. The scarf is wide enough to drape delicately around your shoulders but can also be wrapped snugly around your neck for extra warmth during cooler evenings.

With a simple yet sophisticated design, the Spring Lace Scarf can be easily dressed up or down. Pair it with a sundress for a romantic and dreamy look, or throw it over a casual t-shirt and jeans for a trendy and effortless ensemble.

Create a Statement Flower Corsage

Complete your spring look with a matching Statement Flower Corsage. This eye-catching accessory can be attached to your scarf, jacket, or even used as a hair accessory.

The corsage features a large, blooming flower made using the same delicate lace pattern as the scarf. Its vibrant colors and intricate details will make you feel like you're carrying a fragment of spring with you wherever you go.

Not only does the corsage add a unique touch to your overall look, but it also serves as a conversation starter. Prepare for compliments and inquiries about where you found such a beautiful piece!

Your Knitting Adventure Begins

Now that you're excited about creating your own Spring Lace Scarf and Statement Flower Corsage, let's dive into the knitting pattern.

Materials Needed:

- Size 6 knitting needles
- 300 yards of lightweight yarn in your chosen color
- Tapestry needle for weaving in ends
- Scissors
- Stitch markers (optional)

Instructions:

1. Cast on 60 stitches.

2. Knit 4 rows in garter stitch for the border.

3. Begin the lace pattern:

Row 1: K2, *yo, k2tog; repeat from * until the last 2 stitches, k2. Row
```

4. Knit 4 rows in garter stitch to finish the border.

5. Bind off and weave in any loose ends.

For the Statement Flower Corsage, follow the same lace pattern with a smaller amount of stitches to create a smaller flower. Then, sew or attach it to a brooch backing, hair clip, or safety pin for versatile and easy usage.

Share Your Knitting Mastery

Knitting Pattern for a Spring Lace Scarf and a Statement Flower Corsage

A pretty lacy scarf (single colour or striped) that's just right for those cooler Spring days and a flamboyant large flower corsage to celebrate the season!

Double knitting or worsted yarn and 4.00mm knitting needles required

The pictured scarves are made from a cotton mix yarn in gorgeous tones that are reminiscent of Monet's Water Lillies or Spring crocus!

Both items can be made in other yarn weights for Autumn or Winter

A simple lace pattern (great as a first lace knittinig project) - the plain scarf shows off the lace stitch and the multi-coloured shows off the ripple effect.

Finished scarf approximately 145cm long and 25cm wide - but will easliy adapt to other sizes

Finished corsage approx 9cm diameter
