The constant risks of riding for Tarkio Motorcycle Club push Paco forward. But every so often, his past consumes him, and he loses his mind. His MC brothers can't be with him all the time. So, when mayhem hits, he can only numb himself with whatever is around—women, alcohol, drugs.

The demons he battles come back to punish him when several women in Missoula disappear, including the secretary at Banks' Body Shop. After reading Josie's journal in his attempt to find her, he becomes obsessed with the woman he only knows through her darkest secrets.

When her best friend on the outside disappears, Josie knows who is responsible. Walking into the casino with her head held high, she plans to kill Askook, once and for all.

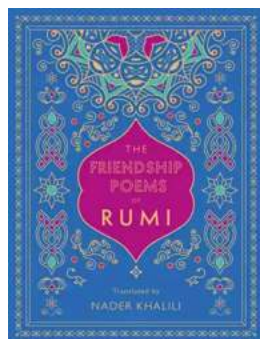

Except, a biker ends up rescuing her before she can finish the job.

As danger strikes, she finds herself bonded to Paco in all the ways she craves. But can she love a damaged man?
