If we were all always perfect in Christ, then love would always be perfect for us all. But since we are all growing in Christ, reality has proven that sometimes love presents us with challenges, battles, obstacles, pain, rejection, life-lessons, as well as hope, joy, comfort, excitement, peace, and pleasure. Sometimes, with all that takes place with love and our pursuit of it, we find ourselves in our feelings. Thinking, dreaming, laughing, crying, praying, embarrassed, and the list goes on. "In My Feelings: An Ode To Love" is a composition of poems which paint a raw and vivid picture of the highs and lows of love and the affects it can sometimes have on the heart. May these poems bring you into reflection, entertain you, and edify you in the name of Jesus. Amen. Thank you.
