Torn from the world she's used to, Nyra battles with the mystery of her father's death. Gary's hospitality has made the sudden change easy on her. They've formed a quick friendship – a friendship that stops Nyra from spinning into total unease. However, more and more mysteries unfold that put more questions in Nyra's mind than are answered.

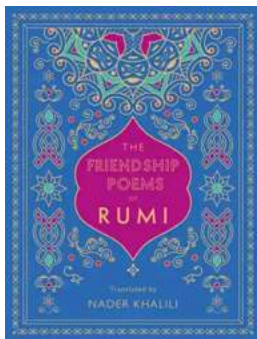

When someone masquerades as a familiar face to ask about her father in her dream, Nyra begins to understand that she may be part of something she has no idea about. But why?

Answers may be waiting for her if she honors the text that promises to reveal the mystery of her father's death. Or, it may be yet another path. Nothing is certain for her at this point.
