The Nords have weathered the storm and survived, but Eric knows everything they've faced so far is only the tip of the spear.

This time, the threat is coming from outside the world Eric has grown to love as his own.

Playing defense will only get you so far, and Eric's about done with taking hits.

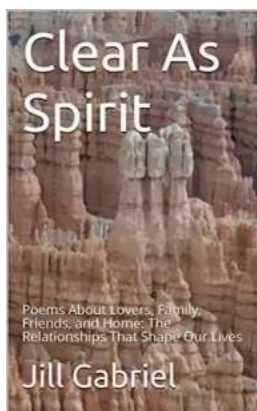

The Nords strike back at this new and deadly threat from Eric's home world, throwing everything they have into their assault. They are the fiercest warriors this world has to offer, with strong magic to back them up.

When facing down the military might of a technologically advanced world, will courage and magic prove to be enough?

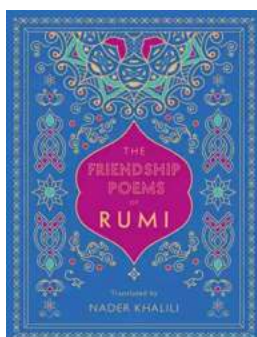

Eric has survived monsters, dungeons, raids, invasions, and earned his place in a new society. With the fate of this new world in the balance, he'll have to level harder and fight better than he ever has before if he's going to win the Field of Valor!
