2. Nalyvka – Sweetness in a Bottle

While horilka is known for its strength, nalyvka is cherished for its delightful sweetness. This homemade Ukrainian liqueur is made by macerating fruits, berries, or herbs in vodka or alcohol. The result is a vibrant and aromatic drink bursting with natural flavors. From classic cherry and raspberry nalyvka to exotic combinations like honey and propolis, Ukrainian nalyvka offers a wide array of options to satisfy any palate.

3. Medovukha – A Honey-Infused Elixir

Medovukha is a traditional Ukrainian drink with roots dating back to ancient times. This honey-infused elixir is made by fermenting a mixture of water, honey, and spices. Medovukha offers a unique blend of sweetness and complexity, with hints of herbs, fruits, and floral notes in every sip. Many Ukrainian families have their secret medovukha recipes, making each bottle a cherished heirloom passed down through generations.

4. Samohon – The Authentic Ukrainian Moonshine Experience

If you're looking for a truly raw and authentic Ukrainian moonshine experience, samohon is the answer. Samohon is the Ukrainian term for homemade moonshine, created through a traditional distillation process. This strong and unfiltered spirit is made with dedication and skill, resulting in a powerful drink that showcases the true essence of Ukrainian moonshine culture.

5. Khirinivka – A Fiery Horseradish Delight

For those who appreciate a spicy kick in their drinks, Khirinivka is a Ukrainian liquor that shouldn't be missed. This unique homemade spirit is made by infusing horseradish roots into high-proof alcohol, creating a fiery elixir with a distinctive flavor profile. Tinctures are prepared from various herbs, leaves, flowers, roots and other components. Homemade tinctures are sweet, bitter, dessert, semisweet. As a rule, tinctures are prepared with vodka.

Depending on the selected raw material, tinctures have different colors. To properly prepare the tincture, you need to know some tricks.

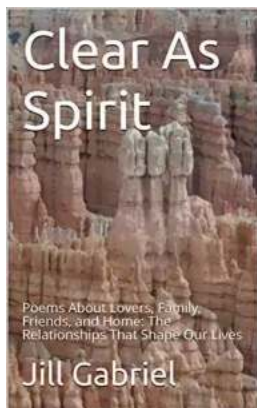

“And I was there, drinking honey beer ...”

Thus ends the folk tales of the Slavs. According to legend, they did not come up with alcohol and vodka ... the fiery intoxicating drink allegedly came from the east. But the honey, which is mentioned in the saying, is an original Russian drink from the time of princely feasts. It is based on truly natural honey, strawberries and cherries, prunes. By the method of fermentation (for which hop and barley or rye bread were used) and two-week infusion, the famous drink was obtained. Well, the familiar names “Mead”, “Fucking”, “Pepper” speak for themselves.

For example, “Fucking” is very easy to make. Skip the horseradish root through a meat grinder. 3 tbsp. tablespoons of this mass pour 0.5 l of vodka, add 3 tbsp. tablespoons of honey. Insist 3 days in a dark place, occasionally shaking. Drain the liquid, leaving a precipitate, and store the tincture in a dark place tightly closed.

Garlic, horseradish, hot pepper in various proportions, insisted on alcohol or vodka, are a medicine in the fight against excess cholesterol, have antiseptic properties. Such tinctures treat diseases of blood vessels, stomach, intestines, resist colds, improve immunity.
