But it wasn't until the recent creative team of writer Jeff Lemire and artist Greg Smallwood took over the series that Moon Knight truly reached new heights. Their run, which spanned from 2016 to 2017, delved deep into the character's psyche, exploring the multiple personalities that reside within Marc Spector, the man behind the mask.

Becoming Moon Knight: Marc Spector's Journey

Marc Spector, a former Marine and CIA operative, finds himself at a crossroads after a mission gone wrong. Left for dead in the desert, Spector is saved by the ancient Egyptian god Khonshu, who grants him enhanced strength and abilities. Embracing his new powers, Spector becomes Moon Knight, a vigilante dedicated to protecting the innocent.

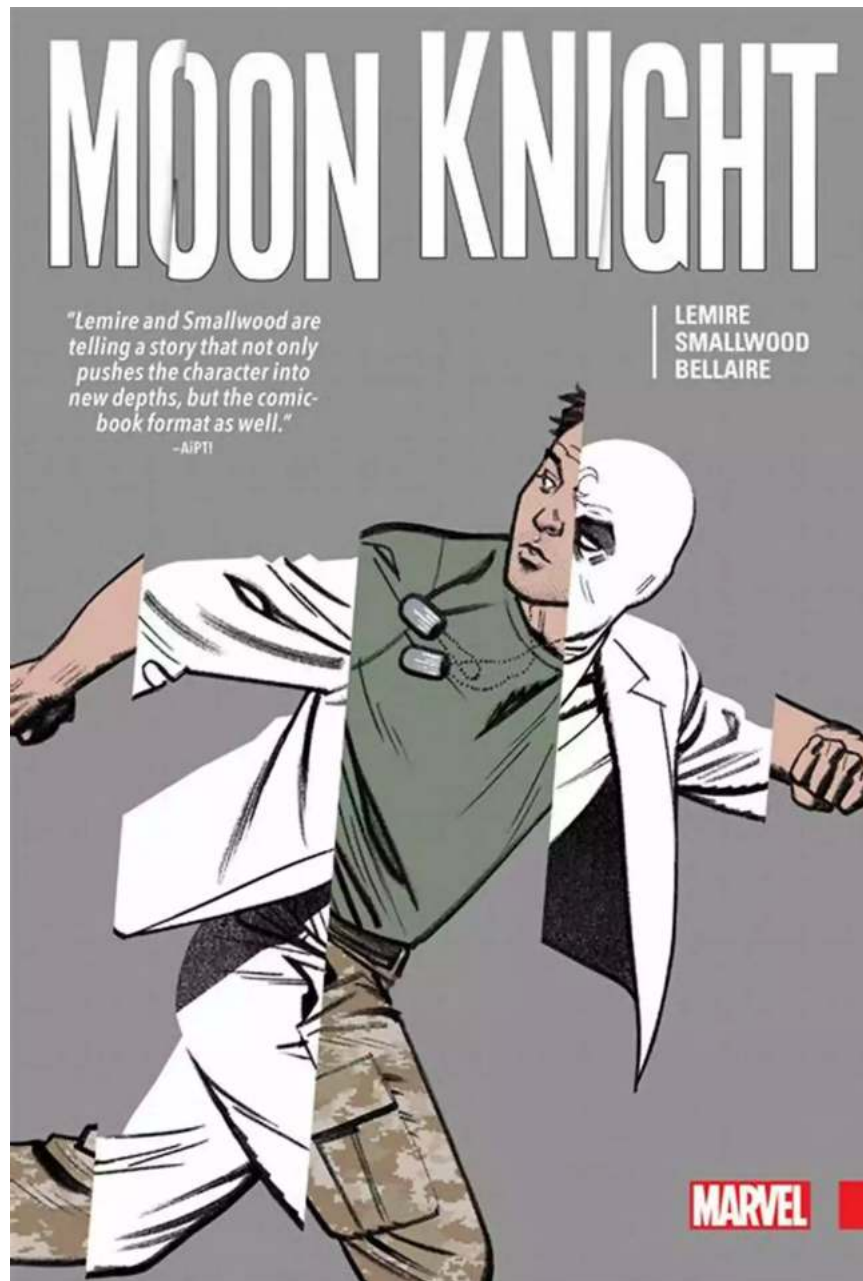

What sets Moon Knight apart from other heroes is the fractured nature of Spector's mind. In addition to being Moon Knight, Spector also takes on the personas of millionaire playboy Steven Grant and taxi driver Jake Lockley. Each personality not only has its own unique skill set but also provides unique perspectives on crime-fighting and justice.
