The Journey Begins: The Written Mage

In the first installment, "The Written Mage," readers are introduced to Farden, a reluctant mage haunted by a troubled past. As he becomes embroiled in a centuries-old conspiracy, Farden must come to terms with his magical abilities while navigating a treacherous world of power-hungry sorcerers and ancient prophecies.

Galley's exquisite storytelling and meticulous world-building swiftly transport readers into Emaneska, immersing them in a realm where adventure lurks around every corner and the line between good and evil teeters on a precipice. Brace yourself for an exhilarating ride as Farden's journey unfolds, revealing hidden truths and unveiling the secrets that bind Emaneska's fate.

A Crescendo of Shadows: The Rot Has Set In

The second installment, "A Crescendo of Shadows," plunges readers deeper into the intricate web of deceit and danger, as Farden seeks to unravel the mysteries shrouding Emaneska's decaying political landscape. With an uncommon alliance formed among rival factions, Farden's mission to preserve his homeland becomes even more perilous.

Galley's masterful character development breathes life into every page, as readers accompany Farden through gritty battles, emotional turmoil, and life-altering revelations. Prepare to be ensnared within a labyrinth of political machinations that will keep you guessing until the very end.

The Last Bastion of the Living: A Necromancer's Riddle

In the third installment, "The Last Bastion of the Living," the Emaneska Series takes a thrilling turn as Galley explores new horizons, merging elements of post-apocalyptic fiction with the breathtaking fantasy world he has so meticulously built. Readers are introduced to a relentless post-apocalyptic landscape, teeming with gruesome undead creatures and a deeply flawed heroine.

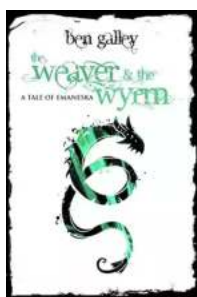

Farden, now a supporting character, guides the fiercely independent protagonist through a world filled with violence, moral dilemmas, and the constant threat of annihilation. Prepare to be captivated by the seamless fusion of necromantic horrors and high fantasy.

An Unforgettable Journey Awaits

The Emaneska Series is a feat of storytelling that will leave you breathless, craving for more with each chapter turned. Ben Galley skillfully combines intricate world-building, multifaceted characters, and heart-pounding action, guaranteeing an immersive experience for fantasy enthusiasts everywhere.

If you are a fan of epic fantasy novels that deliver an unforgettable reading experience, delve into the mesmerizing world of Emaneska through the extraordinary series written by the talented Ben Galley. Immerse yourself in a realm where the boundaries of reality and magic blur, and where unimaginable adventures await at every turn of the page.

Farden is a Written mage: a living weapon, the brutal fist of the Arka, trained in the schools of magick and forged in fire and blood. There are few that would dare to trifle with a Written, but there are always those too stupid or too ambitious to heed the warnings.

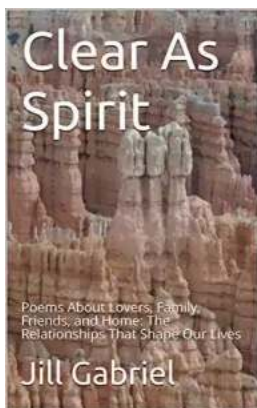

Driven from the city of Krauslung and the Arka by family shame and gossip, Farden hopes the far-flung land of Albion will give him the peace and anonymity he craves. Shunned by the rest of Emaneska, Albion is a land of cruel dukes, rolling hills, and narrow minds who have rarely seen true magick.

When his new and unusual superior Durnus immediately dispatches Farden on his first mission to recover a valuable weapon, the mage's hopes of lying low are dashed by the Weaver: a grifter with poisonous ambition and other ideas for the weapon.

Battling bandits and a hunter with a score to settle, Farden not only has to claim and keep ahold the weapon, but he must find out why it has half of Albion – and the Arka – chasing its tail.

The Weaver & The Wyrn is a brand new novella set before the events of The Emaneska Series and Scalussen Chronicles. This new Norse fantasy adventure of Emaneska's most dangerous mage is a completely self-contained standalone.
