Welcome to the Welsh Marches during The Anarchy 15. Settle in as we embark on a journey, exploring the long-forgotten stories and unraveling mysteries surrounding this turbulent era.

The Welsh Marches: A Historical Gem

The Welsh Marches refer to the borderland between England and Wales, a region shrouded in a tapestry of mystique. Rugged hills, ancient castles, and charming market towns dotted the landscape, setting the stage for the unfolding drama of The Anarchy.

The Anarchy, dating back to the 12th century, was a period of conflict and chaos in England. This power struggle erupted between Empress Matilda and King Stephen, both vying for the throne left vacant after the death of Henry I. Amidst the turmoil, the Welsh Marches became a hotbed of confrontation, bearing witness to their fair share of battles, sieges, and sieges.
