Treasure brought them together. Enemies tested their love. But now the enemy is closer than they think...

Archer Mahoney's talent for finding lost treasure is almost as good as his talent for finding trouble. When he uncovers a vintage portrait linked to a fortune of diamonds stolen during World War II, he's suddenly thrust into a dangerous chase filled with bizarre clues, ruthless adversaries, and stakes that could cost him the woman he loves.

When Rosalina is kidnapped by a madman out for revenge, the treasure hunt turns into something more sinister. More personal.

With time running out, Archer will have to play the madman's chilling game to save her in time. But if there's one thing Archer has learned from a lifetime of hunting lost secrets, it's that to win against the devil you can't play by the rules...
