If someone murdered your family, how far would you go for revenge?

Over half a million copies sold. Over 1,600 five-star reviews. The international bestselling thriller series starts here.

□□□□□ "King sits alongside Rapp, Reacher, and Harvath as my favorite action-thriller heroes."

The world knows Alexander King as a successful young businessman. The CIA knows him as one of the US military's most legendary soldiers, turned vigilante assassin, who sharpens his skills in the shadows until he can exact revenge on the monster who murdered his family. The government has watched his double life go on long enough, and now they want their weapon back.

King has different plans.

When a celebratory night is violently interrupted by a surprise attack at King's home, those plans are set in motion. His experts say it's suicide, but with the CIA closing in, King must sidestep them and take the fight directly to his rival. With unlimited resources and unimaginable skills, King's target will need an army to survive his wrath. Turns out, that's precisely what his enemy has.

This is no longer just about revenge. This is war.
