“Edge of the seat stuff.” M. Madden

SAS combat veteran Gabriel Wolfe now works as a Government troubleshooter. Haunted by a botched mission, he battles PTSD as well as his country’s enemies. In Trigger Point, Gabriel faces an egotistical billionaire planning an armed coup.

It all starts here ...

While driving his prized Maserati, Gabriel is run off the road by a glamorous redhead who tells him his old CO, Don Webster, wants to see him. Don now runs a covert ops unit called, simply, the Department. He hires Gabriel as a troubleshooter. “The job’s pretty easy, Old Sport. You find trouble. And you shoot it.”

Gabriel is inserted into Sir Toby Maitland’s inner circle and accompanies him to the US, where he intends to buy the final pieces of kit he needs for his coup to succeed. But Maitland is as devious as he is rich, and soon Gabriel is under threat from an unexpected quarter.

Partnered with a former Delta Force operative, Shaun Cunningham, Gabriel has just days to defeat Maitland or see the country he loves fall into enemy hands. But Maitland has powerful, and dangerous, friends.

Readers’ opinions

“The opening gambit for Gabriel Wolfe, and a great story of a plan to take back the United Kingdom from the government by a madman. Great intriguing tale.”

S.D. Knight

“Andy Maslen's Trigger Point introduces Gabriel Wolfe as a new hero. What a tremendous read. Fast paced, kept me in suspense all of the way through. Could hardly put it down.”

Ian Brown

“Absolutely brilliant. You will not be disappointed!”

Bev Jarvis

The first book in an enthralling series

This gritty, action-packed thriller will leave you short of sleep. It will keep you guessing from page one, including a truly shocking second-act twist. Its powerful mix of strong male and female characters will have you rooting for them against all the odds they face.

A hero like no other

Readers have compared Wolfe to other familiar action heroes. Jack Reacher. John Milton. Ben Hope. Spider Shepherd. Mitch Rapp. But in truth he is his own man.

He's no super-soldier or indestructible man-mountain. If he's shot, he bleeds ... and he hurts. His PTSD, which he battles along with his country's enemies, gives his missions a sharper edge.

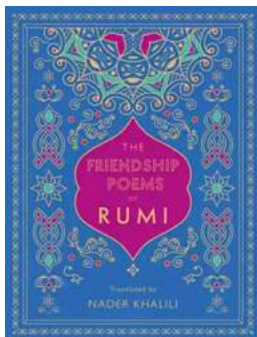

But make no mistake. Wolfe is a good man to have on your side in a tight spot. And he always finds time to help those in trouble, whether or not they are paying for his services.
