A slew of murders.

A cunning psychopath.

A ruthless game.

A vicious killer continues to stalk the lush island paradise.

When another body turns up at a popular tourist destination, and another young girl goes missing, Tyson and JD find themselves in a race to find the killer before more innocent victims are slaughtered.

Thwarted at every turn, the maniac is always one step ahead. He's smart, wicked, and loves to play his twisted games.

But playtime is over.

Tyson is on a mission to bring the demented sadist to justice.

Reagan's news coverage of the crimes have unintended consequences. JD faces a different kind of killer. And Madison has a new discovery that she may want to keep secret.

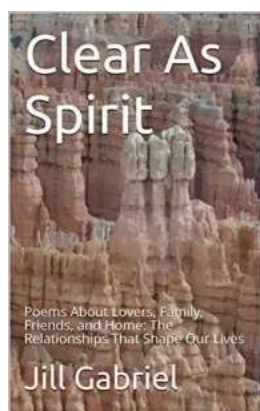

Time is running out as the body count rises. And the killer has set his sights on a new target—one all too close for comfort.

It's dark days in the Florida Keys, and Tyson's plan to give the killer a taste of his own medicine may backfire.

Will the reign of terror ever end?
