In this, the third of The Preston Andrews Mysteries, Press thinks everything in his little world is exactly what it should be. He and Rachel are a couple--their future is looking bright. Then Press gets the phone call no man wants to get.

Rachel is missing!

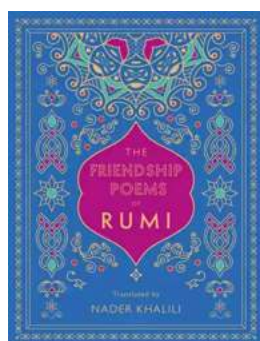

In Seattle, a madman has been killing women for approximately a year. SPD's Chief Maddox is desperate to keep his city safe, so he calls in the FBI. That, of course, means Probst--the Bureau's Director and Press's worst nightmare--is involved.

Press's whole world is upside down. The Virginia team (Press, Trace, Palmer) is joined and supported by Press's dad, U.S. Senator William Andrews. They head to Seattle to go hunting--for Rachel and for a serial killer.
