The Biker Mechanic and the Boss Loving Heroine

Verity:

We all make mistakes.

Unfortunately, I'm running from mine.

After my life and career fell apart in Chicago,

I moved to Callman's Creek, Wisconsin not knowing what I'd do next.

That's when I saw the 'help wanted' sign at Savior's Auto Body.

I didn't know much about cars, but I knew I need to make money fast.

Beggars can't be choosers, and most women would die to work for a guy like Hawk Savior.

Unfortunately, I'm not most women, and this is exactly what got me into trouble the last time.

Hawk:

After my marriage ended in a shocking heartbreak, I'd sworn off women forever.

No women in life, and certainly none working for me in my auto body shop.

Then came Verity...headstrong, gorgeous, perfect Verity.

I knew hiring her as my shop manager was risky,

but something told me that it would be okay.

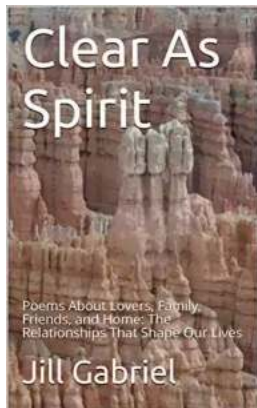

That she'd be my employee, and nothing else.

But even I knew, there was something happening between us.

Something that had me questioning myself,

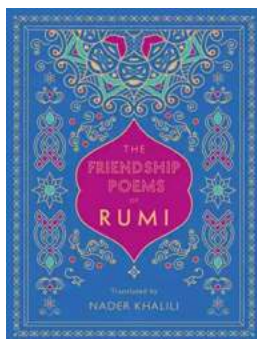

And wondering if any woman was worth the risk of getting hurt again.
