REVIEWS:

Must read! 5 out of 5 stars for a there and back again tale of modern swashbuckling on the high seas. It really is rare to find an independently published debut novel of such compelling quality.

4 out of 5...

Most of the story takes place aboard the rugged Staghound, a sailing vessel whose secrets Cliff makes it his mission to learn and conquer. Lengthy descriptions of the boat, and copious use of sailing jargon, result in a spirit of authenticity and a strong atmosphere, while the book's glossary and sketches of the boat are helpful for imparting general understanding.

A divorced man gets pulled into a wild adventure on a sailboat in the Pacific in Beiley's debut novel set in the 1980s. A slow-starting but ultimately exciting adventure with unexpected twists.
